Re: Stipulations set forth in application to intervene by Mr. Hasbrouck.

Judge Stern,

I write to you this day, 45 minutes after Mr. Hasbrouck appeared to return detail plans and specifications for our water improvement project.

I must include several details that represent Mr. Hasbrouck's despicable demeanor and personal vulgar attack upon my secretary of 6-weeks.

Mr. Hasbrouck appeared without appointment at approx. 1:20 P.M., neither my self nor field associate were present in the office, it was attended solely by Terry Cauthen my secretary.

Upon presentation of the said documents, by my previous direction, Mrs. Cauthen asked Mr. Hasbrouck to sign the same document that had been signed upon Mr. Hasbrouck check out of the plans and specifications. Mr. Hasbrouck refused this request 3-times, and responses ranged from no to vulgarity to a personal verbal assault on Mrs. Cauthen's mother.

Upon my arrival back from lunch Mrs. Cauthen informed me of the event and her responses.

The story would be incomplete if I did not mention Mrs. Cauthen's; dedication to carrying out direction, defense of her dear deceased Mother and the willingness to assist Mr. Hasbrouck with his filing. I'm certain I've employed the right person.

Excuse me from lingering to get to the point. Yes, Mr. Hasbrouck has returned the plans and specifications that were checked out to him on 10/03/03, in good order.

Looking towards the hearing of April 23, 2004.
